SECTION TWO - LEASE TERM

This agreement to Lease is made $[OURDATE]$, by and between Landlord, and Tenant, by and through Agent, as defined in Section One. Landlord agrees to Lease to Tenant the Premises as defined in Section One. At the end of the Initial Lease Term, this Lease Agreement shall be automatically renewed on a month-to-month basis under the same terms and conditions herein unless the following occurs:

Landlord or Tenant provide the other with a written notice of termination on the Agent approved form at least 45 days prior to the end of the Initial Lease term or any subsequent terms with the effective date of termination being the last day of the month.

SECTION THREE - RENT

NOT AN ACTUAL LEASE, FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY. MINOR MODIFICATIONS HAVE BEEN MADE TO PROTECT THE INTEGRITY OF THE DOCUMENT AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OF BIRCH MANAGEMENT, INC.

ONLY THE ACTUAL LEASE, EXECUTED BY ALL APPROPRIATE PARTIES, SHALL GOVERN THE LANDLORD TENANT RELATIONSHIP

Rent is due and payable without demand ON or BEFORE the first day of each month. Payment is to be made by check, money order, or credit card (bank fees may apply) and paid at the payment location as noted in Section One. Rent is not considered paid until:

- (1) Landlord receives Tenant's check, money order or other negotiable instrument (aLL of the above hereinafter referred to as "negotiable instrument");
- (2) Landlord endorses (i.e. signs or stamps the back of) the negotiable instrument;
- (3) Landlord deposits the negotiable instrument with Landlord's banking institution; and
- (4) Tenant's banking institution honors the negotiable instrument by paying Landlord through Landlord's banking institution.

Until aLL four (4) of the above events occur, Tenant agrees that Tenant has not made a payment, nor has Landlord accepted a payment. Tenant shall not owe Landlord a late fee if aLL four (4) of the above events have occurred AND if Landlord received Tenant's negotiable instrument on or before the fifth (5th) calendar day of the month that the rental payment was due. If rent is not paid as defined above by 11:59pm on the fifth (5th) day of the month (with no exceptions for weekends, holidays, or inclement weather) in which it is due, the Tenant shall pay as Additional Rent a Late Payment Fee equal to the amount set forth in Section One of this Lease, and/or the Landlord may terminate this Lease Agreement for nonpayment of rent and / or late payment of rent. ALL payments after the 5th of the month must be made in the form of cashier's check, credit card, or money order. No partial payments of rent shall be accepted. Tenant acknowledges that Summary Ejectment Filings may be submitted without notice to Tenant for failure to pay rent. It is understood that acceptance of late rent by the Landlord does not cure the Tenant's material non-compliance with the Lease Agreement as a result of the late payment. The Landlord will collect a $25.00 (which may be increased by Landlord or Agent as permitted by law) fee on any check that is not honored for payment, for any reason, and aLL future payments must be made by cashier's check or money order. The charges discussed in this paragraph are in addition to the regular monthly Tenant rent.

Acceptance of late rent at any time does not constitute a waiver of any breach of this Agreement or any other rights and remedies the Landlord may have under this Agreement. Specifically, Landlord retains its right to terminate this Agreement or Tenant's right of possession for any breach of this Agreement notwithstanding Landlord's acceptance of partial rent payment. Landlord shall apply payments received to any outstanding charges, including, but not limited to late fees, maintenance charges, administrative fees, and any other fees allowed for under this Lease Agreement.

The late fee shall be considered Additional Rent, and Tenant will owe Landlord the late fee without Landlord having to demand it from Tenant, and Tenant will tender the late fee, together with the late rental payment, onLy in the form of a cashier's check, money order, or credit card.

SECTION FOUR – DROP BOXES

For the purposes of this Lease Agreement and for the purpose of assessing late fees pursuant to Section Three, Tenant agrees that any notice or payment that Tenant delivers to an after-hours "drop box" that may be located on the exterior of Landlord's management office shall be deemed received at the time the management office re-opens for business, not before. By using the "drop box," Tenant agrees that delivery of a notice or payment after business hours on the date any notice or payment is due may result in the notice or payment being considered late, and in such an event, Tenant shall be liable for late fees and/or for an additional month-to-month renewal term, where applicable under the terms of this Lease Agreement.

SECTION FIVE - SECURITY DEPOSIT

A Security Deposit as noted in Section One shall be administered in accordance with the North Carolina Tenant Security Deposit Act (N.C.G.S § 42-50 et. seq.). IT MAY, IN THE DISCRETION OF EITHER THE LANDLORD OR THE AGENT, BE DEPOSITED IN AN INTEREST-BEARING ACCOUNT WITH THE BANK OR SAVINGS INSTITUTION NAMED ABOVE. ANY INTEREST EARNED UPON THE TENANT SECURITY DEPOSIT SHALL ACCRUE FOR THE BENEFIT OF, AND SHALL BE PAID TO, THE LANDLORD, OR AS THE LANDLORD DIRECTS, SUCH INTEREST, IF ANY, MAY BE WITHDRAWN BY LANDLORD OR AGENT FROM SUCH ACCOUNT AS IT ACCRUES AS OFTEN AS IS PERMITTED BY THE TERMS OF THE ACCOUNT.

Upon any termination of the tenancy herein created, the Landlord may deduct from the Tenant Security Deposit amounts sufficient to pay: (1) any damages sustained by the Landlord as a result of the Tenant's nonpayment of rent or nonfulfillment of the Initial Term or any renewal periods, including the Tenant's failure to enter into possession; (2) any damages to the Premises for which the Tenant is responsible; (3) any unpaid bills which become a lien against the Premises due to the Tenant's occupancy; (4) any costs of re-renting the Premises after a breach of this Lease by the Tenant; (5) any court costs incurred by the Landlord in connection with terminating the tenancy; and (6) any other damages of the Landlord which may then be a permitted use of the Tenant Security Deposit under the laws of this State. No fees may be deducted from the Tenant Security Deposit until the termination of the tenancy. After having deducted the above amounts, the Landlord shall, if the Tenant's address is known to him, refund to the Tenant, within thirty (30) days after the termination of the tenancy and delivery of possession, the balance of the Tenant Security Deposit along with an itemized statement of any deductions. If the extent of Landlord's claim against the security deposit cannot be determined within 30 days, Landlord shall provide to Tenant with an interim accounting no later than 30 days after termination of the tenancy and delivery of possession of the Premises to Landlord and shall provide final accounting within 60 days after termination of tenancy and delivery of possession of the Premises to Landlord. If there is more than one person listed above as Tenant, Agent may, in Agent's discretion, pay said balance to any such person, and the other person(s) agree to hold Agent harmless for such action. If the Tenant's address is unknown to the Landlord, the Landlord may deduct the above amounts and shall then hold the balance of the Tenant Security Deposit for the Tenant's obligation for a six-month period beginning upon the termination of the tenancy and delivery of possession by the Tenant. If the Tenant fails to make demand for the balance of the Tenant Security Deposit within the six-month period, the Landlord shall not thereafter be liable to the Tenant for a refund of the Tenant Security Deposit or any part thereof. If the Landlord removes Agent or Agent resigns, the Tenant agrees that Agent may transfer any Tenant Security Deposit held by Agent hereunder to the Landlord or the Landlord's designee and thereafter notify the Tenant by mail of such transfer and of the transferee's name and address. The Tenant agrees that such action by Agent shall relieve Agent of further liability with respect to the Tenant Security Deposit. If Landlord's interest in the Premises terminates (whether by sale, assignment, death, appointment of receiver or otherwise), Agent shall transfer the Tenant Security Deposit in accordance with the provisions of North Carolina General Statutes § 42-54.

SECTION SIX - CONDITION OF PREMISES

Immediately upon occupying the Premises, the Tenant has the right to inspect the Premises. The walls, ceilings, floors, windows, cabinets, woodwork, stone, ironwork or any other part of the Premises or decorate the Premises or make any alterations, additions, or improvements in or to the Premises without the Landlord's prior written consent and then only in a workmanlike manner using materials and contractors approved by the Landlord. Requests by Tenant to make any alterations to the Premises must be submitted in writing. All such work shall be done at the Tenant's expense and at such times and in such manner as the Landlord may approve. All alterations, additions, and improvements upon the Premises, made by either the Landlord or Tenant, shall become the property of the Landlord and shall remain upon and become a part of the Premises at the end of the tenancy hereby created.

SECTION FOURTEEN – EVENT OF DEFAULT BY TENANT

In the event the Tenant shall fail to: (a) pay the rents herein reserved as and when they shall become due hereunder; or (b) perform any other promise, duty or obligation herein agreed to by him or imposed upon him by law and such failure shall continue for a period of five (5) days from the date the Landlord provides Tenant with written notice of such failure, then in either of such events and as often as either of them may occur, the Landlord, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided by law, may, at its option and with or without notice to Tenant, either (i) terminate this lease or (ii) terminate the Tenant's right to possession of the Premises without terminating this lease. Regardless of whether Landlord terminates this lease or only terminates the Tenant's right of possession without terminating this lease, Landlord shall be immediately entitled to possession of the Premises and the Tenant shall peacefully surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord immediately upon Landlord's demand. In the event Tenant shall fail or refuse to surrender possession of the Premises, Landlord shall, in compliance with Article 2A of Chapter 42 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, reenter and retake possession of the Premises only through a summary ejectment proceeding. If a summary ejectment proceeding is instituted against Tenant, in addition to any court costs and past-due rent that may be awarded, Tenant shall be responsible for paying Landlord the relevant Complaint-Filing Fee, Court Appearance Fee or Second Trial Fee, only one of which Landlord is entitled to charge and retain. The Complaint-Filing Fee may be charged if: (i) Tenant was in default of this lease, (ii) the Landlord filed and served a Complaint for summary ejectment and/or money owed, (iii) Tenant cured the default or claim, and (iv) Landlord dismissed the Complaint prior to judgment. The Court Appearance Fee may be charged if: (i) Tenant was in default of the lease, Landlord filed, served, and prosecuted successfully a Complaint for summary ejectment and/or monies owed in small claims court, and (iv) neither party appealed the judgment of the magistrate. The Second Trial Fee may be charged for a new trial following an appeal from the judgment of a magistrate, provided Landlord proves: (i) that Tenant was in default of the lease and (ii) Landlord prevailed. (NOTE: If the rent is subsidized by HUD, the US Department of Agriculture, a State Agency, a public housing authority, or a local government, any fee charged pursuant to this paragraph 16 shall be allocated on Tenant's share of the rent only.) In the event Landlord terminates this lease, all further rights and duties hereunder shall terminate and Landlord shall be entitled to collect from Tenant all accrued but unpaid rents and any damages resulting from the Tenant's breach. In the event Landlord terminates the Tenant's right of possession without terminating this lease, Tenant shall remain liable for the full performance of all the covenants hereof, and Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to re-let the Premises on Tenant's behalf. Any such rents reserved from such re-letting shall be applied first to the costs of re-letting the Premises and then to the rents due hereunder. In the event the rents from such re-letting are insufficient to pay the rents due hereunder in full, Tenant shall be liable to the Landlord for any deficiency. In the event Landlord institutes a legal action against the Tenant to enforce the lease or to recover any sums due hereunder, Tenant agrees to pay Landlord reasonable attorney's fees in addition to all other damages. No fees may be deducted from the Tenant Security Deposit until the termination of the tenancy. Landlord shall not be considered to be under any duty to take any action to mitigate damages by reason of Tenant's default and expressly shall have no duty to mitigate Tenant's damages.

SECTION FIFTEEN – EVENT OF DEFAULT BY LANDLORD

Until the Tenant notifies the Landlord in writing of an alleged default and affords the Landlord a reasonable time within which to cure, no default by the Landlord in the performance of any of the promises or obligations herein agreed to by him or imposed upon him by law shall constitute a material breach of this lease and the Tenant shall have no right to terminate this lease for any such default or suspend his performance hereunder. In no event and regardless of their duration shall any defective condition of or failure to repair, maintain, or provide any area, fixture or facility used in connection with recreation or recreational activities, including but not limited to swimming pools, club houses, and tennis courts, constitute a material breach of this lease and the Tenant shall have no right to terminate this lease or to suspend his performance hereunder. In any legal action instituted by the Tenant against the Landlord, the Tenant's damages shall be limited to the difference, if any, between the rent reserved in this lease and the reasonable rental value of the Premises, taking into account the Landlord's breach or breaches, and in no event, except in the case of the Landlord's willful or wanton negligence, shall the Tenant collect any consequential or secondary damages resulting from the breach or breaches, including but not limited to the following items: damage or destruction of furniture or other personal property of any kind located in or about the Premises, moving expenses, storage expenses, alternative interim housing expenses, and expenses of locating and procuring alternative housing.

SECTION SIXTEEN - ABANDONMENT

A. Tenant shall reside in the Premises during the term of this Lease Agreement.

B. If Tenant abandons personal property with a value of five hundred dollars ($500.00) or less in the Premises or fails to remove such property at the time of execution of a writ of possession in an action for summary judgment, the Landlord may deliver the property into the custody of a nonprofit organization regularly providing free or at a nominal price clothing and household furnishings to people in need, upon that organization agreeing to identify and separately store the property for 30 days and to release the property to the Tenant at no charge within the 30-day period. A Landlord electing to use this procedure shall immediately post at the demised Premises a notice containing the name and address of the property recipient, post the same notice for 30 days or more at the place where rent is received, and send the same notice by first-class mail to the Tenant at the Tenant's last known address. Provided, however, that the notice shall not include a description of the property. In the alternative, Landlord may remove the property and dispose of or store the abandoned personal property pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 42.25.9.

A. Ten days after being placed in lawful possession by execution of a writ of possession, the Landlord may throw away, dispose of, or sell all items of personal property remaining on the Premises. During the 10-day period after being placed in lawful possession by execution of a writ of possession, the Landlord may move for storage purposes, but shall not throw away, dispose of, or sell any items of personal property remaining on the Premises unless otherwise provided for in Chapter 42 of the North Carolina General Statutes. Upon the Tenant's request prior to the expiration of the 10-day period, the Landlord shall release possession of the property to the Tenant during regular business hours or at a time agreed upon. If the Landlord elects to sell the property at public or private sale, the Landlord shall give written notice to the Tenant by first-class mail to the Tenant's last known address at least seven days prior to the day of the sale. The seven-day notice of sale may run concurrently with the 10-day period which allows the Tenant to request possession of the property. The written notice shall state the date, time, and place of the sale, and that any surplus of proceeds from the sale, after payment of unpaid rents, damages, storage fees, and sale costs, shall be disbursed to the Tenant, upon request, within 10 days after the sale, and will thereafter be delivered to the government of the County in which the rental property is located. Upon the Tenant's request prior to the day of sale, the Landlord shall release possession of the property to the Tenant during regular business hours or at a time agreed upon. The Landlord may apply the proceeds of the sale to the unpaid rents, damages, storage fees, and sale costs. Any surplus from the sale shall be disbursed to the Tenant, upon request, within 10 days of the sale and shall thereafter be delivered to the government of the County in which the rental property is located.

B. If the total value of all property remaining on the Premises at the time of execution of a writ of possession in an action for summary ejectment is less than one hundred dollars ($100.00), then the property shall be deemed abandoned five days after the time of execution, and the Landlord may throw away or dispose of the property.
